

Bio – Diversity

Sir Aaron C. Mason, the Diversity Trainer and Advocate, introduces trainees to cultural competences through a historical trauma lens that embraces systemic thinking; Sir Aaron's approach to diversity training as been regarded as Innovative.

Trained in the systemic principle of Marriage and Family therapy, Sir Aaron utilizes a unique blend of theoretical approaches and experiential exercises to teach individual how to overcome historical trauma and increase their ability to connect across cultural differences.