

Bio – Generic

Sir Aaron C. Mason is the president and founder of Becoming Sir Consulting, LLC. He is also known as the “The Success Advocate” and is renownedly recognized as the creator of the Strengthening Our Community program.

Receiving his Master’s Degree in Marriage and Family Therapy and in pursuit of his doctorate, Sir Aaron is anchored in systemic thinking and recognizes the importance of relationships and the inter-connections that we all share. He brings a creative and youthful energy that promise to excite, motivate, and educate audience of all ages.

Sir Aaron holds a wealth of knowledge spanning across multiple disciplines. His experience as a child in foster care, division-1 collegiate athlete, a research scholar, and professional within the helping profession and higher education makes him perfect for your motivation and training needs.

Sir Aaron’s unique blend allows him to deliver elite training, workshops, and speaking engagements around the topics of diversity, leadership, resiliency, and success.